

The Global Equity Fund (P001) has shown increased volatility in recent market reports due to geopolitical tensions in the Eastern European region. Analysts suggest that its risk profile is trending from 'High' towards 'Medium' in the short term. The regulatory body for the EU is reportedly monitoring the fund for potential reclassification.